TALK ABOUT AN INKREDIBLE EXPERIENCE...

To whom it may concern

Prior to meeting Talking Business, our telecommunications were a continuing frustration.

Costs were increasing, performance decreasing and every issue left me feeling like I was being ignored by our telco.

Happily that is all in the past. Talking Business was able to cost effectively install a new system that has saved us money every year for the last three years.

Based on their performance over an extended period of time we are now also using them as our broadband provider. I have every confidence this service will be every bit as reliable as the phone service.

I recommend them to any business who wants a personalised service based on performance not platitudes.

Sincerely

Wayne Lazarides
